Notification

Students in the status of completion of study,

The new DED system has been put in use since last semester. (Website: aao-eas.nuaa.edu.cn) In new system, you can select retaking courses and check your timetable and more functions will be added. Although all the pages are in Chinese, it is more user-friendly, concise and clearer, plus it can be visited on your phone. Please be notified that the password and user name for new DED system is same with the previous one.

Please check the Attachment B for guide to apply a retaking course and Attachment A to check your timetable of semester 2019-2020-2.
